Society Women Will Aid Ball for French Fund

Entertainment at Waldorf-Astoria Will Have Many Novel Features and Oldtime Farm Goodies Will Be Sold

A harvest home ball will be held Friday night in the main ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria for the benefit of the American Committee of Devastated France. The dances will be in the form of an "Apple Pie Alphabet," which will include the dance of "The Pipping and the Nut," "Apple Jacks" and "Apple Dumplings," and other novelties suggestive of the season. A harvest cafeteria will be run in one of the ante-rooms and here will be sold sweet cider, milk doughnuts, cookies, pumpkin pie and "blue ribbon" apples donated by Mrs. Allison Barry and sent from the State of Washington. Each apple is supposed to be worth $1, but the auctioneer, probably will sell them for more than that. Other apples, from the same state, will be sold at the "bar." The "barmaids," under the direction of Miss Emily Gilbert, are Miss Lucy Hewitt, Miss Grace Bristed, Miss Lucy Lord, Miss Augusta Dixon, Miss Louise Dixon, Miss Madeline Lynch and Miss Sara Buckley. The new film, "The Heritage of France," will be shown.

Atlantic City Is Preparing for Big Thanksgiving Day

Plenty of Turkeys Assured
All Visitors to Resort;
New Weather Record Is Near; Arrivals From N.Y.

ATLANTIC CITY, Nov. 22.—Hotel managers of Atlantic City have assured their turkey supply for Thanksgiving dinners. Although prices are reported to be soaring in anticipation of the holiday demand, seashore stewards and chefs of hotels and smart boardwalk restaurants have placed orders for the fowls, or have them fattening on the farms ready for slaughter. According to present indications, the Thanksgiving crowd of visitors is to be the largest known along the boardwalk, and many special reservations have been received from New York and other cities for big family dinner parties scheduled to take place of the usual expensive and troublesome home affairs of the Thanksgiving season.

Atlantic City is rapidly reaching all former records for the number of days of sunshine, with prospects that the records will be topped before December. Warm days early in the week lured some of the yachtsmen on sea trips, and hopeful golfers are wishing for the continuance of fine days for their special holiday events at Northfield and Seaside.

Advice to Motorists

New York motorists on their way to the shore are to be asked to use the Absecon Boulevard, connecting this resort with the town of that name, which runs directly to the New York highway from Lakewood. Owing to the increase in motor traffic, bridges on the old Meadow Boulevard running into Chelsea are to be replaced with larger and stronger steel structures, which will be fitted with electrically operated draw lifts to facilitate traffic.

In the march of coast progress the oil lamps of sturdy Absecon Light, which flash from its tower to the upper end of the city, are to be replaced with high powered electric searchlights, which will shoot beams fifty miles out to sea. The new lights will be a great aid to summer yachtsmen and fishermen caught far out on deep-sea fishing banks by the sudden fogs of warm weather.

Specialty Men Meet

A convention of the National Specialty Manufacturers Association, held at the Traymore this week, discussed new trade problems brought about by war and prepared for a lively campaign to occupy the workers and customers during the coming months. Next week a number of prominent North Jersey floriculturists will come to the Chalfonte to attend the meeting of the New Jersey Horticultural Association, and members of the New Jersey Association of Real Estate Boards will meet at the hotel in December to discuss important housing problems.

New York Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Kelley, Mrs. David Kelley and Sherman D. Kelley were in a motoring party from New York which arrived at the Traymore. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Reiter are among the New York patrons of the Breakers. Mrs. Philip Hoxall Noland has joined the New York colony at the Marlborough-Blenheim. Mrs. John T. Woodruff and Mrs. Clinton Wagner are among the newcomers from New York at the Dennis. Charles H. J. Dilz came from New York to join his family at the Strand. Miss E. Schulz and Miss tured. Among those figuring in the chase were Carl Humphries and Floyd Hopkins, of New York, and Vernon Chase, of Mineola, L. I.

New Yorkers contemplating a sea-plane voyage from Key West to Havana this winter need pay only $75 a trip. The Cuban-American Aircraft Corporation intends to begin frequent service December 15. One plane already has arrived. Its cabin accommodates fifteen passengers and 500 pounds of mail and luggage.

Movie Men Go South

D. W. Griffith, the movie producer, is planning to bring fifty actors here this winter to produce a tropical picture. John J. Foley, representing the Fox Film Company, is also in Miami seeking a three-masted schooner for a week's lease, from the deck of which Captain Kidd or Bluebeard will enact a stirring piratical drama.

When Glenn H. Curtiss arrives in Miami for the season early next month a novel aeroplane will accompany him. The machine possesses three motors and will carry eight passengers. Trips will be made to Fort Myers and Tampa, on the Gulf Coast, Key West and possibly Havana. Mr. Curtiss and his family will occupy apartments at the Clyde Court during the winter.

Everest G. Sewell and Gracie D. Bowen, representing the Chamber of Commerce of Miami, returned from Charleston, S. C., after attending the Atlantic Deep-sea Waterways convention. Through their efforts a resolution was passed favoring a 25-foot channel in Biscayne Bay, so that shipping of large tonnage may enter this port.

Some Recent Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. Herman B. Walker and children, Clinton and Beryl Walker, of New Brunswick, will pass the winter in Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, after being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cochrane, of South Norwalk, are located on their houseboat, the Mariposa.

The Clyde Court apartments are filling rapidly. Among recent arrivals are Mr. and Mrs. George H. Conde, of Baltimore, Md.; Captain and Mrs. J. H. Williams, of Albany, Ed Howe, editor of "The Atchafalaya," and his niece, Miss Adelaide Howe.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Lee, of Peekskill, have leased the home of John W. Watson for the winter.

Thomas E. Newman, of Bound Brook, N. J., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Newman at their Avenue L home. John H. Collins, of Morestown, N. J., arrived Wednesday for his fifteenth season. Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Hop-
